

More Options to Choose From...

—Prophetic Ministry 101 reminds us that while we are not all prophets, scripture teaches that we can all prophesy. (1 Cor 14) So how should prophecy function in a local church today? This workshop is taught over the course of a Friday evening and all day Saturday weekend format and covers the basics of new testament prophecy. You will learn how God speaks to us and how to deliver (and judge!) a prophetic word. We will examine hindrances to prophecy being fulfilled and debunk common misconceptions about the prophetic. Each teaching session is followed by a "clinic" in which we put into practice what we've been learning about. We'll have a number of activation exercises designed to get your prophetic gifting up and running. Finally, we will look at how to grow in one's prophetic gifting and maybe even try some prophetic evangelism! (That's always a blast!)

—Summer Mission Trips You can augment your trip with a team of folks who are trained and comfortable with praying for healing and deliverance. We instruct and model power ministry for those who are less experienced/comfortable with the supernatural but would be open to adding this type of ministry to their mission outreach. If you are ready, not just to "tell" but also to "show" the Good News of the Kingdom of God, to begin to see with spiritual eyes and to witness the power of God in the present moment, to see people healed and set free, to learn how to spy out the spiritual contours of the land, contact us about augmenting your Summer mission trip!

Rev. Steve Stutz, Founding Director

Oil of Heaven Ministries teaches, models, and imparts responsiveness to the Holy Spirit for life and ministry. We have a unique focus of specializing in working with congregations of the various synods of the Lutheran church, but we like to work across denominational lines and are happy to serve the Lord wherever He opens the door for ministry, regardless of the sign on the front lawn. Our workshops and conferences focus on healing, spiritual gifts, prayer, and discipleship.

Our conferences are highly practical, hands on, and experiential. Because we know that most people learn by doing not simply by receiving a lecture, we try to move people quickly from theory to practice. We do not believe that Christian ministry is a "spectator sport" and our goal is bring as many people into the game as possible.

Oil of Heaven can come alongside you in three ways:

Teaching: The task in teaching is to present material that honors Scripture without going off into things that distract from what the Lord is communicating. Our teachers have long-standing testing in living out and teaching the tenets of the Bible with truth and realistic applicability. They present a fresh vibrancy to the Word of God.

Modeling: We are a team of both clergy and laity, who work together at your event. During the event, these team members live out what is being taught in a natural but Spirit-dependent manner which provides a model for others to observe and follow.

Imparting: All who are present experience teaching, observe modeling, and receive various degrees of impartation. However, the host church is asked to provide key leaders who "shadow" Oil of Heaven team members for the duration of the event's teaching sessions, ministry times, and down times. Through teamwork, debriefing sessions, and personal sharing, host church members are given hands-on learning experiences.

Topics to choose from...

—Healing Prayer Conference For too many of us, the only healing model we know is the TV evangelist shouting "Be Healed!" and slapping people on the forehead. Whether we like it or not, health and wholeness of body, mind, and spirit is central to the gospel! This workshop includes a general, introductory overview of health and wholeness (body, mind, spirit) from a Christian perspective, which ends with a time when we actually "do the stuff" and begin to pray for the sick in attendance. Later, we go deeper into spiritual, emotional, and physical sickness and how to avail oneself to God's method of relief, with special attention to the sacraments and liturgical rites of the church.

—Dreamwork Seminar gives an overview of dreams in the Bible, how to recall your dreams, a basic method of interpreting your dreams, a look at some common symbols, and then we actually do some dream work with the dreams of people in the audience.

—Welcoming the Holy Spirit is a highly experiential workshop designed to introduce you to the person, work, and power of the Holy Spirit. We offer a series of sessions which will heighten your awareness of the ministry of the Holy Spirit in your personal life (and in the life of the local church) as well as identify and break down Western rationalistic barriers that hinder our openness to the Holy Spirit's leadership, guidance, and direction of our lives into the fullness that God offers to us. Each teaching is followed by a clinic—a hands on opportunity to see ministry modeled, to try it oneself and to be available for the Spirit to give an impartation for ongoing ministry. The day will close with an opportunity for you to receive personal ministry from team members to actualize more fully "the promise of the Father" and help you begin walking daily in the power of the Holy Spirit.
